

Camp Literacy 2013

Utica Community Schools is once again offering this award winning Summer Literacy Program. Envision a program with a literacy-based focus where every child is immersed in exciting reading, writing, thinking, listening and speaking activities. Picture children practicing skills in pairs, small groups, workshop settings and literacy work stations. This special program is open to students who have completed Kindergarten through sixth grade.

Students will receive 60 hours of focused, effective and exciting literacy instruction . . . tons of information about the great outdoors, including animal, natural resources, plants, land forms and sports . . . and individual support to meet the specific needs of each child. All program locations and times are subject to change.
